Mr. Silvio E. Piacenti,
1601 Halsted Street,
Chicago Heights, Illinois.

Dear Sir;

The coin you sent on January 17th is not especially rare. It might be worth from twenty-five to fifty cents. It was coined in Rome by the moneyer C.E. Gallius Lupercus in behalf of the Emperor Augustus who ruled 31 B.C. to 14 A.D. I am returning the coin in this letter.

As you did not send return postage to us, please remit the amount covered by this letter and oblige,

Yours very truly,

Curator.
